180 swim lessons daily at Arlington Recreation Park

The swimming program and playground activities at Arlington Heights recreation park are in full swing. Bob Campbell, swimming director, reports that an average of 180 swimming lessons are given per day.

Girls participating in water ballet have been practicing to qualify for the ballet. Those who passed their swimmers test are: Sylvia Brown, Martha Collins, Carol Cox, Marilyn Hoffe, Suzanne Franke, Carol Krabill, Darlene Meierhofer, Ila Miller, Ann Milmanow and Alice Simroe. Joan Winterbauer passed the advanced swimmers test. Now that they have qualified, practice will begin for the show to be presented later in the season.

MANY BOYS and girls have already passed swimming tests. Dennis Meyer passed the intermediate test.

The following girls have passed the beginners test: Audrey Gronert, Laurie McNey, Carole Burdeman, Patricia Rascher, Bonnie Malchow, Joan Anderson, Maureen Barrett, Margaret Stey, Suzanne Marsch, Pat Loy, Louise Munson, Carol Conley, Theo Heide, Maureen Shumaker and Jean Danisch.

BOYS WHO have passed their beginners test are: Jimmy Hintron, Charles Bencic, Charles Crittenden, Ronald Weinrich, Ashley Haase, Tommy Stephan, Steven Scott, Thomas Bray, Clark Richards, Michael Harris.

Billy Lussow, Peter Swanson, Patrick Harris, Allan Schmidt, Johnny Hanak, James Ahmer, Paul Brown, Jeffrey Hanor, Scott Moritz, Ray Louis, Ray Heruff, Jack Kindler, James Lynch, Warren Hanak, Fred Steingraber, Ronnie Grove, Dick Michalski and Tom Williams.

The girls' group which won the special Saturday playground event included Mary O'Connell, captain; Lynn Nelson, Judy Lips and Susan Wittenberg. The special event was a flag hunt.

Still hoping for Santa Claus

"While there is life there is hope," was the reason given by a representative of the residents of Arlington Home Gardens when asked Monday evening why he was again appearing before the village board.

The residents of that area want an improved street as much as ever and were again told Monday night that it is up to them to get it — from Taylor.

The board, however, said it might be possible to install street lights on Forrest avenue. The residents are entitled to them board members claimed.

Residents of Kennicot avenue are not going to wait for Santa Claus and Christmas for their road. E. B. Munson, asked if action could be taken on the petition previously submitted by residents who are ready to pay their proportionate share of costs for the paving of the west side of that street. Effort will be made to get similar commitments from owners of vacant lots.

Village engineers will be directed to prepare estimates.

Six injured in 3-way traffic accident

Six persons, including a lieutenant of River Forest police department were injured June 30 when two cars obeying a traffic signal were hit by a third car.

The accident happened at Patton and Northwest highway.

Those injured included five women and the police officer.

Some were treated at the Palatine hospital.

WLS entertainers feature of Carnival by Palatine firemen

WLS entertainers will highlight the annual Palatine Firemen's Festival Sunday, July 31 at 2:30 p.m. The carnival will held July 23 through the 31st.

Entertainers will include the Gold Dust twins, WLS Rangers and Scotty the Clown.

Another feature attraction will be the 1949 Oldsmobile. Additional items will be featured with this new car.

Water fights will be held nightly and Sunday afternoon.

Rides, games and exhibits will complete this fun-packed carnival.

CC to sponsor circus as benefit to library fund

Twirling classes open at high school

Twirling classes meet weekly on Wednesdays at Arlington Hts. high school at 1:30 p.m. Frederick Schmoyer is in charge of the class and Alice Simroe assists him.

This is an excellent opportunity to learn to twirl and also to keep in practice. Enrollments are still open for those interested.

Former Assessor Charges Libel; Sues For $50,000

Arthur L. Long, former York township assessor, has filed suit for $50,000 in damages detrimental to his character and good name against Supervisor Albert Lockman of York township and the accounting firm of Olson, Leary & Co., Chicago, it was learned at the circuit clerk's office in Wheaton this week.

ACCORDING TO the suit, at a meeting June 8, Lockman said that Long "had withdrawn and taken unto himself $1,139 more than the amount of money that had been authorized for him, during that previous four years that he had held office."

INCLUDED in the program are such famous circus acts as: the poolside Hanneford; a riding comedian and his troupe of famous bareback riders; Don Ellis, king of the slack wire; Henry's canine comedians; Miss Loyola Albertini, aerialist; Hayes Bros. dog and pony circus; Gracie Hanneford, ballerina; Bozo, comedy juggler; and Fay Avalon, heading the clowns.

Tickets for the circus are now being sold by members of the Chamber of Commerce. Children will be admitted for half price.

Since a large portion of the profits from the circus will be derived by the advance sale conducted by the Chamber of Commerce members, it is hoped that the response to their ticket sales will be the harbinger of a huge attendance at each performance of the circus.

UPON LEARNING of the suit Supervisor Lockman, represented by Joseph S. Perry, township legal advisor, filed a reply saying that the suit does not contain enough facts to make it stand up in law.

Attorney Perry says that his clients will demand a jury trial. No date has yet been set for the hearing which will be held in circuit court at Wheaton.

BEFORE HE was defeated in an attempt to be re-elected last April, Long had been the township assessor for 21 years. His defeat came the same time as Lockman's election to supervisor. Both men reside in Elmhurst.

Banks poll customers on five day opening

Customers of Mt. Prospect State bank are being asked to express their choice of banking days. They are being asked:

1. Can Saturday's transactions be handled on any other day of the week.

2. Could Saturday's business be done by mail.

3. Shall present banking hours, Monday to Friday, be lengthened.

In an effort to learn what business and closing hours best suit the majority of its patrons, the Bensenville State bank this week is submitting a questionnaire to its customers.

Four different plans are submitted and the customer is asked to mark the one that he prefers and return the card to the bank.

DuPage county banks, numbering 18, are trying to agree on a uniform plan for the entire county. Last Monday night the county banker's association met at Elmhurst with the following endorsements when a poll was taken: Eight voted for opening every week day except Wednesday; six wanted the plan which would have banks open every week day except Monday, while four banks were non-committal.

It is understood that all north DuPage county banks, Roselle State, the Itasca State and the Bensenville State were unanimous on the Wednesday closing.

Because these banks want to conform to the wishes of their patrons in this matter, customers of the banks are asked to make their preferences known.

School board asks St. James st. be vacated

A hot, stuffy village hall equipped with fans was the scene of a rather quiet village board meeting Monday night. Considering the heated discussions of the last two meetings this one might even be called dull.

A request was made to vacate St. James st. between Evergreen and State rd. In view of the proposed four room addition to the North school, this would give additional space and eliminate the necessity of blocking the street during school hours. The board agreed to defer action until the churches in the vicinity were contacted. They might object to losing this parking space.

It was reported that Raymond Becker, superintendent of public works, surveyed the sewer on S. Dunton. From his inspection it seems to be clear, but it was agreed at the meeting to have the sewer rodded in order to make sure it contained no obstructions.

Robert Himmel of Des Plaines notified the village clerk and village officials that he would sue them for inadequate sewerage disposal if they did not discontinue issuing building permits after receipt of his letter. He claims excess sewage is dumped in the creek which flows past his home.

However, Arlington Heights has a combined storm and sanitary sewer system and operates under a permit from the state sanitary water board. Village officials agree something must be done about the sewers, but it can't be done over night. The rapid growth of the town has caused this condition. The village has received no official word from the state sanitary water board concerning this matter.

Payout of approximately $6,000,000 was approved by the board.

REGULARLY SCHEDULED helicopter mail flights to 43 towns within a 40 mile radius of the Chicago Municipal Airport will be inaugurated this summer.

T. H. Reidy, president of Helicopter Air Service, and the pilot Harry M. Miller spoke to those who greeted them and showed them the helicopter before leaving for Des Plaines.

Seven hundred officers and men of the 223rd infantry of the 53rd Illinois Division of the National Guard including men of the Third Battalion from Palatine, Arlington Heights, and Des Plaines will leave by motor July 23 for two weeks training at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin. They will return August 7.

Major Fulle is commander of the Third Battalion whose headquarters are in Palatine.

Twenty per cent of these men are veterans. For the others it is their first time in the army.

They will live on the army scale and receive regular army pay. Instruction and demonstration of all weapons and artillery will be given.

Summer band presents concert Thursday night

Arlington Heights summer band will present its first concert Thursday, July 7, at 8:30 p.m. at the recreation park. Frederick C. Schmoyer, director, said, "The band is 30 per cent better this year than last year."

An accordion soloist, Ada Faustick, will be featured in addition to the regular program. She will select her own numbers. Solos are a new innovation in this 74 piece band, and Mr. Schmoyer intends to use them throughout the season.

NEW MEMBERS of the summer band are: Barbara Arnold, flute; Dick Berthold, clarinet; Fred Braun, clarinet; Kay Bressner, sax; Mary Creighton, trumpet; Ada Faustick, alto clarinet; Shirley Gloss, percussion; Carolyn Hinneberg, clarinet; Ray Holmes, tuba; Rick Hull, clarinet; Norman Laubenheimer, baritone.

DuPage county banks, numbering 18, are trying to agree on a uniform plan for the entire county. Last Monday night the county banker's association met at Elmhurst with the following endorsements when a poll was taken: Eight voted for opening every week day except Wednesday; six wanted the plan which would have banks open every week day except Monday, while four banks were non-committal.

Complete plans for annual festival at Lutheran Home

The Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged, Arlington Heights, has completed plans for its annual festival July 10.

A display booth for one of the proposed architectural sketches of the new building being planned by the Home will be of special interest to visitors. Plans and proposals for the new building will be explained together with the proposed sketch.

HARMONY BAND of Chicago under the direction of Dr. Royal Reimer will play for the dinner services at 10:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. and will play concert music in the period after the afternoon services.

The choir of Grace Ev. Lutheran church, Chicago, under the direction of Walter Borchardt, will sing in the services. Miss Elaine Borchardt will be the soloist and Mrs. Florence Reimer, the accompanist.

Walther Memorial hospital, Chicago, will again provide personnel for first aid service.

MEMBERS of the Lutheran churches of Arlington Heights, Palatine, Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Skokie and other churches of metropolitan Chicago will assist in making preparations for the festival and will provide the help required for the various features of the festival.

Members of Boy Scout Troops No. 7 and 37, Arlington Heights, under the direction of former scout Master Martin Freeman will assist with messenger service and first aid service.

Special police will assist with car parking.

Sound equipment for the Festival will be furnished by Donald M. Kempf, Mount Prospect.

200 homes now under construction; moderate priced houses in demand

Arlington Heights is not waiting for any government grant to speed new building. Two hundred homes are either under construction or awaiting the finishing touches that will enable owners to move in.

Homes in the lower priced bracket, $12,000 to $14,000 are being sold almost as soon as foundations are in. A few homes of the $16,000 to $20,000 class, however, are still empty, although some of them were completed six months ago.

High school board discusses addition, transportation

Arlington Heights high school board met Tuesday night to discuss the new building to be erected and bus transportation for students.

The architect's representatives reported to the board with sketches of the proposed building. Construction will probably be delayed on the new building until October 1.

Henry Geisen and his attorney outlined their proposal for transporting students next term. Approximately 475 students are expected to use these buses. The price agreed upon was 90 cents per student per week.

It was estimated that there would be 10 bus routes. On the basis of the state law seats will be provided for all students living 1½ miles from the school.

Spectators will be entertained mostly by new professional acts of famous stage and radio stars. Local talent will feature Ralph Stippich as master of ceremonies and Les Griffith at the piano. A clown will be on hand to entertain the kiddies.

NEW RIDES

and grownups will never permit a dull moment at this carnival.

Refreshments and food prepared by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Post will be served.

Educational displays, war souvenirs and historical documents will also be shown.

CHAMBER OF Commerce and all local businessmen have been generous in offering their support. Many citizens have also volunteered their services.

Dr. Muench will be the attending physician. Oehler will furnish ambulance service, and local Boy Scouts will render first aid on the grounds.

All are again requested to join the parade Sunday at 2 p.m. which will start from the high school on Euclid avenue.

ALL MEMBERS

are urged to attend the regular meeting of the Post July 8 at 8 p.m. at the City Hall. One meeting per month is held June, July and August.

Members and their friends are asked to lend a hand during this carnival which is for the benefit of the proposed Club house.

CHAMBER OF Commerce and all local businessmen have been generous in offering their support. Many citizens have also volunteered their services.

Dr. Muench will be the attending physician. Oehler will furnish ambulance service, and local Boy Scouts will render first aid on the grounds.

Because Illinois law requires that in a condemnation action started by a governmental unit within the state, a jury must fix the indemnity to be paid the owners, the proceedings will not get under way until the October term of the Cook county circuit court. This court has been adjourned for the summer.

This is the second proceeding of five townships are published in Paddock Publications this week. They show an increased amount swooproph erobewiwy? iac number of persons who are to be assessed this year and will be expected to pay personal property taxes.

Persons who filed no schedule with the local assessor will find that a fifty per cent penalty has been added to the estimate the assessor made.

Any person who desires further information about his particular assessment can secure it without charge by inquiring at the office of the county assessor in the county building.

The assessment rolls of Wheeling and Elk Grove township appear in the Arlington Heights Herald, Mt. Prospect Herald and Cook County Herald.

The rolls of Barrington, Schaumburg and Hanover appear in the Palatine Enterprise.

The Palatine list has not yet been released for publication.

Everyone Reads the Want Ads

The Golden Text was:

"I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust" (Ps. 91: 2).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon, the following were from the Bible:

"The Lord is exalted; for he dwelleth on high; he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure . . . Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might . . . For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our law-giver, the Lord is our king; he will save us" (Isa. 33: 5,6,13,22).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"History teaches that the popular and false notions about the Divine Being and character have originated in the human mind.

As there is in reality but one God, one Mind, wrong notions about God must have originated in a false supposition, not in immortal Truth, and they are fading out . . . We lose the high signification of omnipotence, when, after admitting that God, or good, is omnipresent and has all-power, we still believe there is another power, named evil . . . There is no power apart from God. Omnipotence has all power, and to acknowledge any other power is to dishonor God" (pp. 357, 469, 228).

When is a boy not a boy?

Most people watch our want-ads, an ad offers young mothers a car baby to ease the strain of that summer vacation and a baby buoy to keep little Tillie from drowning, whether in her tub or in the lake.

Why not get into the habit of watching our ads, regardless of whether you are interested in a new job or want to buy a purebred Holstein cow for that vacant garage? They really produce results.

Modern Nurse

Before 1873, nurses kept no records of treatment and medication administered in their wards. No charts of patients' conditions were kept other than the doctors' notes. With the development of modern medicine, the professional nurse of today has become a specialist requiring years of education before she is qualified for her highly technical responsibilities.

School of Music choral clinic will have guest conductors

A limited number of the public will be admitted to Lutkin Hall on the Evanston campus of Northwestern University to the guest-conductor sessions of the School of Music's annual choral clinic. The six-week clinic is a feature of the School's Summer Sessions curriculum.

First guest conductor will be Barret Spach, choir director of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago. His appearance will be July 7 and 8, beginning at 11:30 a.m.

Other guest directors will be Ifor Jones, director of the Bethlehem Bach Choir of Bethlehem, Pa., on July 14 and 15; Pete Seeger, popular folk song singer, on July 22; and Dorothy Wasum, director of choral music, South high school, Denver, Colo., on July 28 and 29.

Tickets to these individual sessions may be procured free of charge in person or by mail, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, from the University choral office, School of Music.

Cinnamon Bread Sandwiches

Thought for a backyard supper or a spur-of-the-moment picnic are flavorful sandwiches made with enriched cinnamon bread.

Because sandwiches are so popular for everyday meals as well as for picnics, make them with a variety of breads to keep them interesting.

Most people like cinnamon loaf, with its wonderful spicy taste. It contributes the same good food values provided by enriched white bread.

When making several sandwiches at a time, cream the butter or margarine slightly so that it will spread easily and go further. Spread butter or margarine to edges of bread, then apply filling with spatula and distribute it evenly over slice. Cover with another slice of bread and cut as desired. Sandwiches keep fresh for picnics or lunchboxes when wrapped and sealed in waxed paper or aluminum foil.

Here are suggested fillings for cinnamon bread:

Mix an equal amount of raisins and peanut butter for a rich, crunchy filling. Fill with sliced American cheese or cheese spreads, which blend well with the cinnamon-flavored loaf. Slice thin apple wedges for filling, or spread slices with apple butter. Jams and jellies are also good.

Renews license with 5,000 Greek drachmae

It must have been like finding the dresser drawer full of gloves for the left hand, only.

E. R. Noderer, foreign correspondent stationed in Switzerland, wanted to renew his Illinois driver's license recently, but as he wrote to Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett:

"I note that the fee is 50 cents. Now I do not have 50 cents. I do not have even one cent. I have looked in the 'old cash department' of my trunk and I find I have Swiss francs, French francs, Italian lire, Greek drachmae, Palestine pounds, Egyptian piasters, Tripolitanian Military Authority lire and Maltese pounds. But I do not have any cents."

"Consequently, I am sending you 10,000 Greek drachmae, which should be about the equivalent of $1 (one dollar). Keep the change."

Secretary Barrett accepted the currency—two 5,000 drachma notes—and Noderer's license is on the way to him. Mr. Barrett is not keeping the change, however, he is returning it in U. S. money—so Noderer will have some cents.

Congressman Church forms new law firm

Congressman Ralph E. Church, (R), 13th District of Illinois, James W. Good, Jr. and Charles K. Bobinette formed the law firm of Church, Good and Bobinette, with offices at 10 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, occupied for 30 years by the law firm of Church and Traxler.

Congressman Church's former law partner, Dean Lake Traxler, died last April, and the new firm of Church, Good and Bobinette was organized as its successor.

Mr. Church is a graduate of the University of Michigan (A. B.) and the law school of Northwestern University (LL.B. and M. A.). He served in the Illinois State Legislature for 16 years and is now serving this 13th year in the United States Congress.

James W. Good, Jr. is the son of the late James W. Good, Secretary of War under President Herbert Hoover. After service in the navy during the war as a lieutenant, he resumed the practice of law in Chicago.

Charles K. Bobinette and Mr. Good have been practicing law in Chicago under the firm name of Good & Bobinette.

As a member of Congress, Mr. Church serves on the committee on appropriations and has been one of the leading advocates of economy. He has been outspoken in his opposition to the Truman Administration's program generally as "costly" and "so-cialistic."

SUE FOR DAMAGE

L. L. Voller and F. J. Gliva have sued the Sinclair Refining Co. in Circuit court for damages caused by an automobile accident July 26, 1947. Voller was driving his car on Rt. 12 near Des Plaines at McDonald road. The Sinclair truck was also going the same way on the road when it made a left turn from the right side of the road without signal and thus caused a collision. Gliva was injured and asks $5,000 damages. Voller asks $1,000 for car damage.

New building—

nig has built a home in the same area.

ARLINDALE, which incidentally has returned to the protecting arms of the village incorporated area, has four new homes, while on W. Wing, which was not many years ago termed the "jumping off place," is dotted with new homes. Three of the owners are Floyd Dobbins, Clark and Horcher.

Frank Leth, who a few years ago built one of the finest ranch homes on the near southside, which is later sold, is trying his luck a second time and is erecting a new home on South Dunton.

Herman Gaul, a member of the advisory group to the building commissioner, has a personal interest in good building. He has an attractive home at Evergreen and Park.

Emil Curtis found a way to get sound lumber for his new home at 637 S. Dunton. He purchased a barn, using the materials therein.

RETURNING to the professional builders, the reporter found that the Wm. C. Trude organization is erecting homes for every moderate price group. He has 12 homes scattered about the southside, which are offered at 12 to 13 thousand. Fifteen homes are under construction on South Highland which are being sold almost as fast as they are completed for 13 to 14 thousand. Trude builds to please and he has ranch type homes costing $18,000 or $23,000 on South Dunton.

Among the newest developments is in the block south of the Paddock Publications plant where Jacob Mauer is erecting seven homes on S. Chestnut and a few on S. Highland, all to be sold at popular prices. These homes hardly get beyond the foundation stage before a "sold" sign is hung out.

Larsen & Blix have erected 16 homes on the south side of the village in Arlington Addition subdivision, all for the man with the average salary.

THE LATE "Tom" Boyer took a lot of pride in the 13 new homes he erected a year ago on S. Ridge. Tiled bath, rear yard enclosed and other features ran up the price, but only six remain unsold. They are in the $18,000 class.

C. W. James Arlington Farms was nothing but vacant land for 20 years after it was originally laid out. Those farms that the subdivider expected to sell to chicken owners, has now a colony of attractive small homes. They are north of Euclid, west of Dryden.

The N. Belmont area is rivaling in a small way, the deluxe homes in Scarsdale, etc. The ranch type houses are sold for $18,000 to $20,000.

Arthur C. Jacobs' homes are sprinkled around the town. Twelve of them are on N. Dryden ave.

'Ostrich Nurture' scored at Lutheran convention

Dr. A. G. Merkens, Director of Education, reporting last week to the annual convention of the Northern Illinois District of the Lutheran church — Missouri Synod, described as "Ostrich nurture, heartless and senseless," the practices of many modern parents in rearing their children.

"An ostrich," said the speaker, "considers her parental responsibilities met when she has deposited her eggs in the sand. Unconcerned about the danger of having the eggs broken by wild beasts or crushed by a passing foot, she walks away to let 'Old Sol' do the incubating. Baby ostriches are on their own from the very start."

Referring particularly to the "convenient and responsibility-shirking practice" of letting children grow up to choose their own religion, if any, and of leaving the task of providing Christian education and training to the church school, the speaker claimed that such "nurture on the sands must eventually lead to individual ecclesiastical, and national tragedy."

The State Conservation Department's 2nd Annual Fishing Rodeo opens May 15, and anglers will seek tagged fish in lakes and streams throughout Illinois between now and October 15. Cash prizes will be awarded to lucky fishermen who land fish tagged with the official Conservation Department tag on the fish's gills.

Local sportsmen's clubs and conservation, civic and fraternal groups are sponsoring Fish Rodeos in their communities. In the Chicago area 40 lakes are being stocked, and in downstate Illinois, in the Central and Southern zones, virtually every area with fishing water will participate in the spectacular fishing attraction.

Rules for the Illinois Fishing Rodeo were explained by Conservation Director Leonard Schwartz: (1) Fish must be caught between May 15, 1949 and October 15, 1949; (2) Either artificial lures or live bait may be used; (3) Prizes will be awarded only for fish with the official tag attached to the gill; (4) Fishermen who land tagged fish should report the lucky catch to a local certifying officer, who will be appointed by the local sponsoring unit.

Information on the Illinois Fishing Rodeo may be obtained by writing Conservation Department, Springfield, Ill. Communities or counties wishing to enlist in the Rodeo should apply to their local sportsmen's club, civic or fraternal organization. That group then applies to the Conservation Department for tagged fish.

Milo Little of Arlington Hts. dies suddenly

Friends and business associates paid their last respects Saturday, July 2 to Milo Little, late of 608 Newbury Place, Arlington Hts.

Public services were held in the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church at two o'clock, the Rev. C. V. Brown officiating. Rev. Brown also conducted services with the immediate family at 11 o'clock at Karstens funeral home. Interment was in Memorial Park cemetery, Evanston.

Mr. Little passed away suddenly in his home on June 29 of a heart attack at the age of 51 years, 3 months and 9 days.

Emphasizing the importance of adult example, Dr. Merkens asserted, that improved materials and methods in church schools cannot do the trick, and called for a radical change in adults and parents if the problems with which endeavors in Christian education are afflicted are to be overcome.

He was an active member of Associated Art Studios of Chicago, Western Advertising Golfers association, Executive Club of Chicago, the Scarsdale Improvement Association and other civic organizations. He was also an elder and chairman of the stewardship committee of the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church.

The deceased was born in Macksville, Iowa, March 20, 1898 and the son of the late Ernestine and Lorenzo Little. Following his marriage to Bea Churan, Mr. and Mrs. Little made their home in Chicago until nine years ago when they moved to their present home in Scarsdale.

Mr. Little leaves to mourn his wife, two children, Robert and Audrey; two brothers, Lee J. Little, Paradise, Calif., and Lloyd G. Little, San Diego, Calif.; and four sisters, Augusta Hunter, Mt. Ayre, Iowa, Mabel Lillard, Greenfield, Iowa, Jene Fouser, Orient, Iowa, and Ferne Hudson, Nauvoo, Ill. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Alvin Little and Lester Little.

Mississippi River

There probably has been no major investment made by the United States that is contributing so much to the development of the Mississippi valley and to Iowa as the system of locks and dams on the upper Mississippi river. It is now realized that when the government spent approximately $150,000,000 on the canalization of the Mississippi it made possible the utilization of a magnificent river which now is contributing to a central state prosperity that seems to have no bounds. There are 26 locks and dams.

overcome. "The time has come," he concluded, "to call parents and the adult generation to account."

FIVE POLIO PRECAUTIONS ARE LISTED FOR PARENTS

Warning that the 1949 polio season is "just around the corner," the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today issued a list of precautionary measures to be observed by those in charge of children during the epidemic danger period which usually runs from May through October, reaching its peak during the hot, mid-summer months.

The five easy-to-follow health rules for children are:

1. Avoid crowds and places where close contact with other persons is likely.

2. Avoid over-fatigue caused by too active play or exercise, or irregular hours.

3. Avoid swimming in polluted water. Use only beaches or public pools declared safe by local health authorities.

4. Avoid sudden chilling. Remove wet shoes and clothing at once and keep extra blankets and heavier clothing handy for sudden weather changes.

5. Observe the golden rule of personal cleanliness. Keep food

Valerie Vetter bride of Herman Koelpner

Miss Valerie Vetter of Highland Park and Herman G. Koelpner of Wheeling took their wedding vows at Bethany Evangelical United Brethren church in Highland Park June 18.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vetter of Highland Park and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koelpner of Wheeling.

Rev. Lester H. Laubenstein officiated at the ceremony. The soloist was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lynn Meyer of Appleton, Wis. She sang "Because," "At Dawn," and "The Lord's Prayer" and was accompanied by Mrs. Esther Laubenstein at the organ. The church was decorated with white peonies and mock orange.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her white satin gown had a fitted bodice and full skirt and her fingertip veil was attached with a seed pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby mums. Mrs. Vetter wore a tan lace dress with corsage of pink and white carnations.

More than 300 people attended the reception held at the Wheeling school hall. Honored guests were the grandmothers of both the bride and the groom.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Northern Wisconsin and are making their home with the bride's parents in Highland Park.

Dolores Grant receives scholarship for Patricia Stevens modeling school

Miss Dolores Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Grant of 211 N. Haddow ave., Arlington Heights, was recently awarded a scholarship for the entire Patricia Stevens cover girl and modeling series of lessons.

Miss Stevens took a personal interest in Miss Grant when she found out that she not only wears a swim suit to perfection, but is also an excellent swimmer. Miss Grant has appeared in several water ballets and last winter completed the Red Cross Swimming Instructors' training lessons on swimming and water safety at the Town Club.

Recently she appeared in several fashion reviews for Patricia Stevens and assisted her Force personnel at the Stevens last week end in registering Air hotel and at the Air Force convention.

This versatile young lady is just 18 years old and is in her third year at the University of Illinois. During her sophomore year she placed a close second in the Homecoming Queen contest, was elected Captain of the cheerleaders, and was elected Prom Queen. She graduated from Arlington Heights high school in 1947.

Former Arlington girl married in Missouri

Miss Velma Heidemann, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Heidemann of Kirkwood, Mo., formerly of Arlington Heights, and Bernhard Bierwagen, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Bierwagen of Burlington, Ill., were married June 26 at the Kirkwood Concordia Lutheran church.

The bridegroom's father performed the marriage ceremony. G. W. Pingel of St. Louis presided at the organ and accompanied Miss Ruth Schumacher as she sang, "Today We At Thine Altar Stand" and "The Lord Is My Shepherd."

Princess satin was used in the bridal gown, which was fashioned with fitted bodice, having flared bertha collar and long pointed sleeves, flared lace at the hips and a full skirt ending in a train. The lace on the yoke and hipline had been used on the bride's mother's wedding dress. Miss Heidemann's fingertip illusion veil was fastened to a tiara of pearls and bugle beads. She wore pearls and carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

The bride's sister, Arlene, served as maid of honor. She was attired in orchid organdy and carried a basket of yellow and white daisies, and ivy. The bridesmaids were Miss Adela Vaith of St. Louis and Miss Mildred Heidemann of Chicago Heights, cousin of the bride. Their dresses were of nile green organdy.

Maxine Loomis, niece of the bridegroom, and Marietta Kragie, cousin of the bride, were junior bridesmaids and were gowned in yellow organdy. Each bridesmaid carried a basket of white daisies and ivy, with matching headband, and a crystal necklace.

The supper, under the sponsorship of the Friendly Circle, will be served between 5 and 7 p. m. Tickets are $1 for adults, and children under 12 years of age, 60 cents. The public is invited to attend.

Give bridal shower

Miss Juanita Meyer of 511 N. Evergreen ave., Arlington Heights and Mrs. Edward Ganchow, formerly Dolores Clifford of Park Ridge, were co-hostesses at a bridal shower last Friday evening. The shower was given in honor of Miss Betty Petersen of Park Ridge, who will be married August 13 to Robert Schreiber of Prospect Heights.

Guests came from Chicago, Park Ridge, Prospect Heights and Arlington Heights. After the many lovely gifts were opened and viewed the guests were served a buffet luncheon.

Married 15 years; mark day with party

The fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin F. Gustafson of Arlington Heights was celebrated June 30 with a party for 21 relatives and friends.

Among the guests was the best man at the wedding, Rev. A. E. Enquist of Waukegan; the maid of honor, Mrs. Oscar Benson, formerly Miss Enquist; and an usher, George Luthman. Other guests included Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Behrens of Arlington Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Swan S. Lindberg of River Forest. Others attending came from the Chicago area.

Fancy sandwiches and salads were served during the evening, after which Rev. Behrens said a few appropriate words in keeping with the occasion. "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were also sung as part of the evening's entertainment.

Many flowers decorated the Gustafson home and the celebrants received lovely gifts and congratulations to mark their "wedding" day.

New Neighbors

Mr. and Mrs. August Hennings
630 North Beverly lane
Arlington Heights

Mr. and Mrs. Hennings have lived in Arlington Heights for a year, but moved into their new home in Scarsdale in May. Before moving they lived with their daughter, Mrs. John W. Kelly of Clarence avenue, Arlington Heights.

They moved from Chicago's north side to Arlington so they could have more room. Mrs. Hennings said they both like Arlington very much. She commented that the people were friendly.

Mr. Hennings is with International Harvester in Chicago. Gardening has become their hobby now that they are in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Ebel
1608 West Euclid street
Arlington Heights

The latter part of April Arlington Heights gained another new family when Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Ebel moved to Arlington from the northwest side of Chicago.

The Ebels wanted to get out of the city, and now that they're here they like it very much.

Mr. Ebel is a mechanic at Poole's in Arlington. They have a daughter, Susan, 4.

They are building their own new home, and have not completely finished yet.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cruickshank
818 South Dunton avenue
Arlington Heights

June 27 Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cruickshank moved to Arlington Heights from Chicago. They had been living in Chicago for five months.

Mr. Cruickshank, who is a member of the research group of the freight traffic committee-Central Territory railroads, which is a group of eastern railroads was transferred to Chicago from Springfield, Ill., where they formerly resided.

While they were in Chicago, the Cruickshanks were looking for a place in one of the suburbs. They finally decided upon Arlington and believe they will like it very much. The gardening for their new home takes up much of Mrs. Cruickshank's time.

The Cruickshanks have a son Robert who will be a senior in the Arlington high school this fall.

Mr. Cruickshank enjoys bowling and is originally from Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hammarberg
405 South Dunton avenue
Arlington Heights

The northwest side of Chicago lost another resident when Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hammarberg moved to Arlington Heights May 15.

The Hammarbergs wanted to get out of Chicago and are enjoying Arlington very much. They are now remodeling the home they bought.

Mr. Hammarberg is a carpenter for the Chicago State hospital.

REVERSE CURTAINS

Continuous exposure to sunlight weakens curtain fabrics. Such fabrics, according to textile experts at the American Institute of Laundering, research and educational center for the laundry industry, become weakened in the lower area faster than at the top where they are protected by shades. To counteract the effect of Old Sol's rays, the Institute recommends using tailored curtains with equal size hem, top and bottom, so the ends may be reversed after laundering.

Circling the Town

by PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Twas a grand and glorious Fourth! Everyone agreed it was in spite of the terrific heat.

Arlington Heights folks were luckier than most for nearly everyone has a yard where there was at least some little breeze. Many families celebrated the holidays with backyard picnics, and barbecue grills really saw good service.

In the informal atmosphere prevalent all over town, villagers made themselves even more comfortable wearing shorts, sundresses and the like.

And then there was the always popular swimming pool crowded as usual. Temporary relief, at least, is available here, and the Fourth of July week end found even more people taking advantage of its excellent facilities.

Despite the anti-fireworks law, village children had their share of harmless "firecrackers"—like the pistols using paper ammunition and the tiny cannons with the deceptively loud report.

On the evening of the Fourth many sought cool breezes at Recreation park where they watched the fireworks. Children—and many adults, too—never tire of these displays. The multi-colored rockets always provoke the oh's and ah's of even a hardened audience, and everyone thrill to the set pieces of the American flag and Niagara Falls. In Arlington Heights, too, every spectator has a front row seat, for the grass in the park provides equally good views for all. Moreover many residents can see the aerial displays without leaving the comfort of their own lawn chairs right at home.

As Monday drew to a close many youngsters and their parents lighted the traditional sparklers and colored flame, giving many memories to last another year.

No, Arlington folks who decided on a stay-at-home Fourth of July had no reason to envy those people who drove along crowded Northwest highway Monday night on the way home from a week end in the country.

Air Fair

Arlington villagers got another break with their excellent view "free for nothing" of the Air Fair at O'Hare International airport (it'll always be Douglas to us!), for again there was no need to battle the crowds of more than 100,000 and get snarled in the traffic tangles on Higgins road—we could see almost all of it at home!

Small boys and their fathers—mothers, too—spent the greater part of the afternoon craning their necks with or without field glasses, to see what they could see. Some even camped on comfortable chairs in their yards, fortified themselves with a cool drink and spent the afternoon gazing at the sky.

Especially impressive was the huge cigar-like (as one neighbor described it) B-36 with its six engines pushing it along from behind the wings. The formation flying of fighter groups was thrilling, too, and the roar of the transports. The jet planes, which sounded like the roll of thunder in the sky, whizzed by so fast that all one could get was a glimpse of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ramsay spent the fourth of July week end in Mansfield, Ohio, where they visited Mr. Ramsay's sister.

Little Pat and Jeanne Strickler, daughters of the Kenneth Stricklers, are vacationing with their grandmother, Mrs. J. F. Strickler, in Shaker Heights, Ohio, for five weeks. They will return about the first week in August.

This week end Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Geddes of Clearwater, Florida will arrive to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Geddes. The guests are Mr. Geddes' parents.

"Why not tell your readers about my easy garbage pail dinner?" said Mrs. James Rickards of 735 N. Patton ave., recently.

As I lowered my eyebrows which had sprung up three inches at the thought of a garbage pail dinner, I expected to hear the old familiar tale of how to fix a wonderful meal out of refrigerator leftovers.

"Out of the east coast they interchange the names Long Island dinner and garbage pail dinner when speaking of their delightful, traditional, seafood meal. There's a bit of a ritual attached to this dinner, they cook it in a garbage pail (reserved for this purpose), serve it on tables set up in the garage, and use paper plates for each layer of this satisfying seafood dish," added Mrs. Rickards.

If you want something different to serve your friends this summer, why not try it? When Mrs. Rickards entertained twelve of her friends with this dinner recently, she prepared a salad early in the day, added rolls and a cool drink, and her meal was complete. With this easy preparation, any hostess can appear calm and unruffled and find time to really enjoy her guests.

At the time secure in the knowledge that her meal would please even the most exacting of chefs.

Long Island Dinner—Serves 12

Put 1 inch of water in bottom of small size garbage pail.

Place 6 very large clams in bottom of container for the first layer, and cover with a layer of seaweed with salt beads left on.

Place a layer of small clams over this for the second layer and add another layer of seaweed.

for fast clearing of the table after each course," Mrs. Rickards suggested. She continued, "My husband usually serves with corn tongs, it's so easy to handle the steaming hot food that way."

While Mrs. Rickards' guests were waiting for this unusual dinner they found plenty to talk and speculate about in this different combination of foods. At least it's different for midwesterners.

Post office jobs open at Glenview

Due to the rapid growth of the Glenview postal district, more men are needed at the Glenview, Ill. post office for permanent work both as clerks and as carriers. Regular positions in the postal service start at $2550 per year and, with longevity, advance to a maximum of $3850 per year. Most appointments are made at the hourly rate of $1.29 with automatic increases in pay each year. Regular clerks and carriers are entitled to three weeks vacation and two weeks sick leave with pay each year.

In addition to residents of Glenview, persons living in Arlington Heights, Deerfield, Des Plaines, Morton Grove, Mt. Prospect, Northbrook, and Palatine may take this examination. The examination will be held at Lyon School, Glenview, Saturday, July 16. Form 5000-A-B must be in the hands of the Regional Director, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Chicago, no later than July 12. Refer to Announcement No. 7-283-1947.

Annual donkey game.

The Wheeling Cardinal softball team slipped down to third place in the Intercity league the past week as they dropped a pair of games to Lake County champions, Waukegan, 3-0, and 4-1, at Memorial Field in Libertyville.

In both cases, diminutive Bob Carlson hurled the Waukegan club to victories to remain undefeated in Intercity league competition. The next game for the Wheeling team will be on Wednesday, July 13, when they encounter last-place Lake Forest.

On the contrary, the National Basketball League playing in smaller cities has had more financial success. The Tri-City Blackhawks of the NBL have signed both Duke Eddelman of Illinois and Jack Kerris 6-6 center of Lovola. The Indianapolis team in the NBL presents one of the most unusual situations in that the entire Kentucky National Champion team has been signed as a unit and what is more they will be owners of the club along with a Kentucky sports writer promoter.

Eveland in the news at Paris high for the last time the matter has not been finally settled. Eveland is going to fight for his job in court but the Paris school board is confident that they have plenty of evidence this time to make the dismissal stick.

Down at Paris where Ernie Eveland has been fired as coach MORE

Eveland has had great basketball and track teams at Paris High but at the expense of all other phases of the school program. He would not allow the boys he coached to go out for football but they had to run cross country. He had to have his own way at all times and was in constant conflict with other members of the faculty as well as the school administration.

Paris is going to enlarge their athletic plant and program under new direction. A recent move by the school board to change all the locks on the school gym is thought to be prompted by the fact that Eveland did not turn in his keys when fired.

Members of both leagues will find entry blanks (self explanatory) at the club house on their next regular day of play.

In order to make this a successful event it will be necessary to have entries not later than Wednesday, July 13. The fee for this great event will be $3.00 per couple which includes golf and prizes. Prizes for this affair will be distributed according to the Peoria system.

N. U. grid tickets placed on sale

Northwestern university opened its 1949 football ticket sale with the mailing of 55,000 order blanks to alumni and former ticket purchasers.

Orders for tickets to all games, both home and away, may be placed immediately, according to Nordstrom who states that advance inquiries indicate a record attendance this fall.

The seating capacity of Dyche stadium will be increased to 54,000 for the 1949 season by enclosing the south end of the stadium to form a horseshoe. The new addition will replace the former wooden bleachers at both ends of the field.

Season tickets for the five home games are priced at $17.50 tax included. Single game tickets are $3.50 each.

The complete schedule follows: Sept. 24—Purdue at Evanston. Oct. 1—Pittsburgh at Evanston. Oct. 8—Minn. at Minneapolis. Oct. 15—Michigan at Evanston. Oct. 22—Iowa at Iowa City. Oct. 29—Ohio St. at Columbus. Nov. 5—Wisconsin at Evanston. Nov. 12—Colgate at Evanston. Nov. 19—Illinois at Champaign.

Andy Phillip may be next stag coach

The Champaign News Gazette mentions rumors that Ernie Eveland deposed Paris coach and Andy Phillip, outstanding stag player, are both candidates for the job as coach of the Chicago Stags in the Basketball Association of America. T. O. White in the News Gazette says that Eveland would have to change a lot to be a successful pro basketball coach as his record at Paris was made on conditioning and hard work rather than basketball strategy. Phillip who led Granite City to the state title and was outstanding on the Illinois Big Nine champs before joining the Stags would be a good playing coach.

Golfers plan mixed two ball-foursome on Mt. Prospect course

An invitation is extended to all members of the Tri-City Women's Golf League and their husbands and all members of the Mt. Prospect Men's Twilight Golf League and their wives to participate in a mixed Husband and Wife Two Ball Foursome at the Mt. Prospect Country Club July 17 at 2 p.m.

Those not having a husband or wife are urged to come anyway. A mate will be found (for the day) when fired.

Paris had been suspended by the North Central Association accrediting agency and had been investigated by the state high school association because of Eveland's practices. The league of which Paris is a member had refused to compete with Paris in track because of the attitude of Eveland at the conference meet a year ago.

The big league teams are out scouring the bushes for likely prospects and many an Illinois high school senior has had offers to sign in organized ball.

Jim Gibbons, a classy shortstop at Chicago's Mt. Carmel high, is one who was approached but his price is a bonus of $22,500. Probably he will enroll at Notre Dame next fall as he was also a good football quarterback.

There are many good players who are expected to enroll at Illinois if they turn down pro baseball offers. Two who are definitely passing up organized baseball for college competition at Illinois are Jim Schuldt who is quite a pitcher in addition to being an all state basketball player and Les Pinkham of West Frankfort an all state football player who is a fine catcher.

Pinkham was offered a $6,000 bonus to sign a St. Louis Cardinals contract with a guarantee of $20,000 a year for the four years of college competition he would be missing. Pinkham will pass up this attractive offer to play football and work for a law degree at Illinois.

Stud Poker in the Grassland

by T. C. HART

The editor wanted a horse and in last week's issue dared the race editor to name a hot one before a race is run. Here is the Stud Poker in the Grassland Handicap July 14.

Stud Poker loves to run on the grass. He's a horse that they say doesn't like to train in the mornings so he has to be raced into shape.

Well, he's lost three close ones lately on the grass so now look out, the old boy is about due to get even and the Grassland Handicap looks like a fine place to do it.

The purse will be big, the horses that have beaten him will be in there—what a spot for revenue.

So there you are, our Editor

It's Stud Poker in the Grassland Handicap next Thursday afternoon.

finishing second, breaking a return to the farm that made him famous a couple of years ago.

SATURDAY, July 11

"No Strings" won the feature race of the day, defeating Two Lee and Bewitch of the Calumet Stable in another of those king killer upsets for which Arlington's stakes races have become famous.

Crowds of around 25,000 and 30,000 witnessed the big holiday weekend of racing at beautiful Arlington despite the blistering heat.

The total mutual play for the first two weeks of the Arlington meeting was reported at 151.5% from last year and the attendance off 8%.

During the first two weeks of the current meeting, the track has been lightning fast and two track records and one American record have been chalked up by the speedsters.

AT THE AGE of 45 he told friends: "Golf looks like a simple game. No reason why anybody can't master it. Just follow the principles of the game."

In less time than it takes most golfers to break 110, "Wick" was shooting in the 70's. One season he averaged 74, never shooting below 72. He was that consistent and steady a golfer. He mastered every club in the bag and nobody was his equal on the putting green.

"Wick" was the golf course employee's ideal boss. Ben Riley, pro, has been at Old Orchard 17 years; Mrs. Gene Battistoni, starting clerk, 7 years, and Jimmy Service, greenkeeper, 5 years.

He had a word of encouragement and advice for every patron.

Old Orchard golfers will miss his figure on the porch of the pro shop—he was there every morning, early, rain or shine. He loved golf and the people who played it.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday from Karstens funeral home, Arlington Heights, where he will lie in state until time of services. He is survived by his wife, Gertrude.

Yes, golf has lost a friend.

After the first inning, during which all of the runs of the game were scored, the Ontario-Bensenville Motors contest proved to be an airtight affair.

Art Meir and Ralph Koehler were the starting hurlers, but neither lasted out the first inning before giving way to their successors, Jerry Schroeder and Gil Breckenfelder, who did a superb job of relief pitching.

The Motors put up a stubborn defense, including two fast infield double plays, but were weak at the plate, getting only three hits

—two by Robertson—and ten batters went down swinging at the expense of Schroeder.

G. Brinkman contributed three singles for Ontarioville.

In another close game, Maywood Clippers defeated their fellow-townsmen, the Legion, 1 to 0, the sole tally being scored in the first inning on successive doubles by Bishop and Marschall.

Ordrup, Garwood, Lechband, Jerry Morel, Tom Reed, Jack Sieburg, Richard Stockwell, and Raymond Stockwell.

Jerry Morel led the team with a home run, and a triple.

Wayne Hesch also scored a triple.

Seventh, eighth graders defeat Palatine

Arlington Heights recreation park's seventh and eighth grade baseball team defeated Palatine last week with a score of 6-3.

Members of the team are Tom Bowersox, Mark Creiston, John Eakin, Bob Frisk, Herbert Gorde, Don Helfers, Wayne Hesch, James Hinton, Garwood Lechband, Jerry Morel, Tom Reed, Jack Sieburg, Richard Stockwell, and Raymond Stockwell.

Jerry Morel led the team with a home run, and a triple.

Wayne Hesch also scored a triple.

'Perfect' pitcher will play pro ball if asked

An outfielder turned pitcher is the toast of Richmond. Vern Miller, 25-year-old farm boy who started pitching only three years ago, hurled a perfect ball for Richmond against Hebron, while his mates scored four runs.

Miller told friends that he would accept a professional offer if it were a good one.

Miller said he is interested in playing pro ball but can make more money working on the farm than playing in some of the smaller leagues.

Pitching is only one of Miller's accomplishments. He is hitting at a .55 clip.

He previously played outfield for a number of years before starting to pitch. He relies mainly on a fast inshoot ball to achieve his many strike-outs.

150 mile stock car race Sunday at Milwaukee

With a record entry list of more than 70 drivers, a 150-mile standard stock car auto race will be conducted on the fast one-mile dirt track at Wisconsin State Fair park, Milwaukee, Sunday afternoon.

Time trials will be started at 1 o'clock, central standard time, and the lineup is scheduled for 2:30.

The time trials are unusually important for this race inasmuch as the huge field must be reduced to the 30 fastest cars for the state championship race.

While this is the first time that a 150-mile stock car race has been presented in the midwest, speedway fans recall the success of the 100-mile stock car championship staged during the Wisconsin centennial exposition of last summer. That event was won by the late Frank Bjork of Minneapolis in 1 hour, 32 minutes, while the one-mile time trial record of 53.24 seconds was created by Emil Andres, Chicago speedway veteran.

Tickets are on sale in advance at the Wisconsin Auto Racing association, 1200 S. 1st st., Milwaukee, and at State Fair park.

To Boil Carrots

Use almost no water for boiling carrots—about one inch in the bottom of a pan with a tight fitting cover. Add one-half teaspoon salt for each pound of carrots, or one-half teaspoon salt to each cup of water. Drop carrots into the boiling, salted water. Cover and boil gently—10 to 20 minutes for the cut pieces and 15 to 20 minutes for the whole carrots.

See record entry for All-American golf

You've heard of that ol' saying: "Nothing attracts like success." It applies to professional and amateur sports just as it does to any business, and no one will deny that the annual All-American and World Championship Pro, Amateur and Women Golf Tournaments at ultra-modern Tam O'Shanter Country Club (Chicago) are not business; yes, big business.

George S May, Tam's entrepreneur, has established the past eight renewals of the All-Americans and World Championships as the greatest links events in the world from the standpoint of popularity and attendance. In short, they've become America's richest and most widely acclaimed golf meets.

Next will be the second annual Old-Timers Diamond Classic, featuring such former stars as Ray Schauk, Lefty Gomez, Rogers Hornsby, Red Faber, Gabby Hartnett and Jimmy Archer.

Climaxing the star-studded show in Hollywood style is the "1949 Movie Star World Series," a softball game that will bring before the fans the largest group of actors and actresses outside of filmland.

William (Hopalong Cassidy) Boyd, Sonny Tufts, Joel McCrea, Peter Lawford, Jack Carson, Kenny Baker, Eddie Bracken, Randolph Scott are among the film favorites who will play.

Local golfers in state tourney

One hundred ninety-three golfers teed off Wednesday (July 6) in the 19th annual Illinois State Amateur Golf Championship at the Mt. Hawley Country Club, Peoria. Qualifying will take two days, Wednesday and Thursday (July 6 and 7), 18 holes each day, followed by match play Friday (July 8) through the 36 hole finals on Sunday (July 10).

Thirty-two will make up the championship flight to battle for the Governor Louis L. Emerson trophy of the Chicago District Golf Association, tournament sponsor. There will be a first flight of 32 and a second flight of 32 or 16.

Following are local starting times for the qualifying round.

Wednesday and Thursday, July 6 and 7.

Persian Gulf

The Persian Gulf is notorious for its highly poisonous jelly fishes—coffee-colored organisms with very small bodies but with tentacles from two to three feet long. Their stings have been known to be fatal, and they are dredged by Arab fishermen. Less dredged are the far more deadly sea snakes. These are so sluggish, however, that few people have ever been bitten by them.

In the future*Inventions lag since war, but do advance science

To gladden the housewife's heart, here's a miniature, old-fashioned coffee mill that grinds pepper corns coarse or fine, and new salad bowls made of birchwood that are washable and liquid proof, and will not stain from oils, alcohol or water . . . also the device for which millions have yearned: a ketchup bottle out of which you can get ketchup; a gadget ratios out just the right amount, no more nor less . . . And if you're going prospecting while on vacation there's a Geiger counter no larger than a camera that will show you if you are near atomic material and a fortune . . . More practical, perhaps, is the new Westinghouse waffle-baker with a built-in rim to catch the overflow . . . If you own a railroad or only cross the tracks you'll be glad to know there's a new gyrating warning light for speedy Diesel locomotives that flashes red automatically when the train stops . . . By using plastic for the handles, a manufacturer is able to offer new pinking shears at half the weight of all-metal ones.

The World Book editors list the following 1948 inventions as the most important in their particular fields:

A new device enables blind people to read ordinary print. A narrow pencil of light hits the print and the shape of letters is changed into sound.

Ceramic-curing—Baking bricks without fire, and curing pottery without kilns, is now possible.

Picks and shells corn—A machine has been invented which picks the ears of corn, shells them, and also shreds the corn stalks.

Curved movie screen—The narrow limits of a motion-picture screen can now be broadened so that viewers in any part of the house can see the movie without receiving a distorted view.

Dial any town—An automatic telephone has been designed to enable the user to dial any number in any city in any state.

More rosin—Southern pines which supply rosin, were cut and a solution of the weed killer 2,4-D was sprayed over the trees. Yields from treated trees were two to seven times higher than from trees which were merely slashed and not sprayed.

Oil from steam—The oil shale is crushed and treated with steam as it moves over a perforated plate underlaid with crushed rock. The steam causes the oil to escape and drip into a container.

More coke—Western industry has been hampered by the scarcity of low-cost coal which would be made into coke. Utah has abundance coal, but it has a high percentage of waxes and oils which hamper the coking process. It has been found that soaking the coal in ethylene dichloride will remove these substances.

Safer explosives—A new explosive made of hydrogen peroxide, glycerin, and water is as effective as nitroglycerin, yet not so dangerous to handle.

Summer so I'm told, is supposed to be a period of relaxation and change—a time to thaw out so to speak before the big freeze sets in again. The same idea goes for mother and daughter's skin. Oh happy day that I'm living in the years when make-up is just a natural occurrence, because it would sure take more than a faint sprinkle of rice powder to tidy up the vision I see in the 7 a.m. mirror.

Women spend a fabulous sum for cosmetics yearly, probably for the wild hope of waking up Elizabeth Taylors after the latest in mud packs has been applied the night before. Now me I'm a Ma Kettle fan myself—so I don't mess in mud, not for the face anyway, but I did check up at Lohr's Pharmacy on some of the latest newfangled ideas in beauty.

Discoveries too that beauty manufacturers are going all out for the simple things in cosmetics. Squeezie bottles and toned down colors for that natural healthy look.

Coty has a new cream lipstick that is positively the latest—it spreads on easily and stays on longer for a soft unsmear look. And if you want to make sure the red stuff stays on your lips there is a new product called Lip-tex. You brush this on over lipstick and you've a cupids bow durable for hours.

Nestles have a new spray lacquer—perfect if the boy friend is the fresh air type and prefers his cars with the top down. You fix your hair so—squeeze the plastic bottle so—a soft spray of lacquer so—a soft spray of lacquer so—and you arrive at the dance or dining out with every hair just so.

All these can be found at Lohr's along with your special favorite in beauty sets, whether it be Yardley, Coty or Du Barry. I'll bet yesterday's race score card that there are shades of red in lipsticks and nail lacquer that Michelangelo never dreamed about. And still there is a new one called "toasted chestnut" never figured they were very red but the Revlon polish is, and the matched sets of nail polish, remover and lipstick are very reasonable and make pic-

Journal of a Bird Watcher

by F. J. FREEMAN

July is the month of heat, half-grown birds, moulting and in general the unglamorous aspect of bird life. It is also the month of egrets arriving from the south and shore birds from the north. A month when upland plover and some other species slip quietly out of the picture.

July 7th—Drove up to Baker Lake and counted eleven egrets there for the night. (And just to complete the picture of the month, there were thirty-three there on the 22nd, fifty-five on the 25th, and seventy-five on the 28th.)

July 14th—Was up to Baker Lake this noon and found it rich in bird life. Saw two dowitchers with buff breasts, one lesser yellowleg, several spotted sandpipers, two solitary sandpipers and six or more "peeps"—those sparrow-sized sandpipers that might be scientifically either the least or semi-palmated variety depending on whether they have yellow-green or black legs. Found the killdeer starting to flock, and saw pied-billed grebes in spring dress, winter dress and states and stages of young dress. Saw half grown young coots, and with their silvery-white necks they show an incipient elegance which they later outgrow. Saw teal and young and many "loafers": two families of wood ducks; three wood duck drakes in eclipse plumage and one in spring (or fall) elegance. Saw a flock of twelve eclipsed mallards. Ducks when they are in eclipse go through a molt during which time they lose their flight feathers and take on an otherwise pretty drab appearance.

July 19th—Found the redwings are turning brown for the winter, and some have lost the covers which cover their red shoulder patches so that they stand out like raw gashes.

Thomas Fuller
No yours, no mine, but always Ours,

Merged in one Power our less-er powers,
For no one's favor, great or small,

But all for Each and each for All.

Edmund Vance Cook
Individuals, as nations, unite harmoniously on the basis of justice, and this is accomplished when self is lost in Love—or God's own plan of salvation. —Mary Baker Eddy
Whatever is unjust is contrary to the divine will; and from this it follows that no true and abiding happiness can be gained by those who are unjust. —Stretch Men will find that they can prepare with mutual aid far more easily what they need, and avoid far more easily the perils which beset them on all sides, by united forces. —Spinoza spoiled children, and the only peace the mother gets is when she dives under.

July 22nd—Saw a family of three juveniles and one parent Virginia rails. The adult bird looked pretty well faded in color. Noted this about a long-billed marsh wren too. All the white areas had turned brown. The black turning brownish. As a matter of fact this hot weather makes us humans look sort of washed out too.

July 31st—This Saturday afternoon Cornelius and I saw a ruddy duck with two downy young which were about ten to fourteen days old, we guessed. They were resting on the water, and every once in a while they would stick back a foot up out of the water and shake it vigorously. The young were very dark, if not black, and their bills appeared to be as black as their feet. The white areas on the adults were, on the young, yellow. This is now the third summer we have seen young here, and it is a matter worth noting as this is not in their normal breeding range. The mystery though is where are they from the time they are last seen in the spring until they show up with young a month later?

OBITUARIES

Jesse W. McGinnis

Funeral services for Jesse W. McGinnis, late of 635 Deerfield rd., Deerfield, were held Saturday from Oehler's Deerfield chapel. Interment was in Moonbeam cemetery, Highland Park.

Mr. McGinnis was born November 18, 1884 in Franklin county, Illinois. He was employed as a cashier at Deerfield State bank. He died at his home June 29.

Surviving are his wife, Alice; children, Eugene P., Madge Rouse, J. Milton, Nona and Alleen; two sisters, Mrs. Rasa Cook and Mrs. Clara Clayton.

Amos Landmeier

Final rites for Amos Landmeier, late of 201-N. Brockway st., Palatine, were held July 2 from Karstens funeral home to the Immanuel Lutheran church, Palatine. Rev. Wilbur Koester officiated and interment was in Rand Hill Park cemetery.

Mr. Landmeier was born February 12, 1894 in Elk Grove township. He was married November 28, 1915 to Martha Oldenburg at St. John's church, Elk Grove, with Rev. F. L. Fehrs officiating. Following their marriage this couple made their home in Mt. Prospect for 20 years, moving to Palatine in January of this year.

At the time of his death he was supervisor of the printing department of the Federal Mills Market administrator. He was also an active member of the Immanuel Lutheran church. Mr. Landmeier died suddenly June 29 at the St. Joseph hospital, Elgin.

Surviving are his wife, Martha; daughter, Mrs. Irene Klopp; two grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Lilly Knaack, Mrs. Alice Schoppe and Mrs. Helen Bishop; and one brother, Gilbert.

Fred Henjes

Funeral services for Fred Henjes, late of 619 W. Campbell ave., Arlington Heights were held Sunday from Karstens funeral home to St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church, Rev. L. V. Stephan officiated and interment was in Elk Grove Lutheran cemetery.

Mr. Henjes was born September 2, 1883 in Elk Grove township. In 1890 he was married to Ellen Duntzman at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church in Northfield cemetery.

Mr. Henjes was born July 31, 1906 in Nashville, Tenn. He was a sales representative for the A. O. Smith company in Chicago. He died at Hines hospital July 5.

Surviving are his wife, Mabelle; children, Paul Jr. and Gail; and his mother, Mrs. Irma Parsons McAleer.

August Wilke

Funeral services for August Wilke, late of Itasca, were held Sunday from St. John's Evangelical church, Addison township. Rev. E. Bergstrasser officiated and interment was in St. John's cemetery.

Mr. Wilke was born in Berlin, Germany, January 20, 1865. At the age of 18 he came to America and settled in Elk Grove

Vacation With Pay in Scenic Wisconsin

CAMP MCCOY, WIS. (ING SPECIAL)—Corporal Robert J. Cooper, Private 1st Class George H. Richards, and Sparta visitor Miss Delores Johnson, preview trout fishing for the coming Illinois National Guard July and August encampments at one of the 45 miles of sparkling streams on Camp McCoy reservation. Described by military leaders as one of the most beautiful and best equipped in the nation, the 65,000 acre modern encampment has permanent housing, training and recreational facilities for more than 60,000 wartime troops, and every effort will be made to afford Guardsmen all the comforts, conveniences and pleasures they would select as elements of their own vacations during their 15-day stay at full army pay and allowances. Military activities will be constructive and interesting and every Guardsman should return from camp in top physical shape, knowing that he has not only enjoyed a stimulating experience, but has taken an active part in demonstrating the role of every citizen's obligation—enforcing the security of the State and nation.

township. In 1890 he married Miss Emma Schwartz and they made their home in Elk Grove for several years, moving then to Bensenville, and for the past 32 years Mr. Wilke made his home in Itasca. His wife preceded him in death in 1907. Two sons, Alfred and Alvin, also preceded him in death.

The late Mr. Wilke died at Elmhurst Memorial Hospital June 30. He leaves five children, Charles, Mrs. Alma Schwartzmann, Mrs. Mathilda Hobbs, Amos, and Mrs. Amanda Petersen; five grandchildren; and one great grandchild.

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this method of thanking our neighbors and friends for their kind expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. These expressions have been deeply appreciated. We would also like to express our appreciation of the help given to us by the Palatine police force.

Familiar as is the term backlog, not every housewife knows its practical use. Before laying the fire, put one log on the floor of the hearth against the back wall and behind the andirons. This log keeps the draft from drawing the fire directly into the masonry and wasting heat.

'Midnight Express' a thriller-diller at Railroad fair

The "Midnight Express," snorting and puffing and big as life, rolls onto the stage of an old time theater in the Gold Gulch amusement area of the Chicago Railroad fair this summer.

Using a cast of a dozen actors selected to fit the standard types of melodrama, the Gold Gulch Opera House presents two condensed but authentic versions of well-known thrillers of half a century ago. Besides the drama of the rails, the company on alternate days gives "Billy The Kid," another sterling number of its day. "Refined specialties" round out the entertainment. Admission is 60 cents.

The railroad play reaches its climax when the heroine, who has been bound and locked in a switchman's shanty by the villain, breaks loose in time to flag the midnight express and save the hero, who has been tied to the track, also by the villain. The locomotive and one car of the train appear on the stage with an effect that was sensational to a bygone generation.

Illinois does its share in Care packages to foreign needy

Residents of the state of Illinois contributed 454,661 to the total of almost eight million food and textile packages which have been distributed by CARE, the non-profit, government approved relief agency, among the needy of sixteen overseas countries during the past three years.

Statistics just released by CARE (Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, Inc.) show that the Illinois total constituted 5.7 per cent of CARE's entire turnover since the beginning of its operations in May, 1946. In the eight-month period of that year, Illinois' share was 75,248 packages in CARE's total for that period of 990,000 packages. In 1947, Illinois residents purchased 178,385 CARE food and textile packages; in 1948, they bought 159,241, and for the first four months of the current year, the purchases totaled 41,787 packages.

Illinois residents may send orders directly to CARE, 189 West Madison street, Chicago 2.

The average goat produces one-half gallon of milk daily for eight to ten months.

Weekly recipes

A cool respite from the sultry heat is a tasty, refreshing molded mouse. This recipe is a meal in itself filled with chicken, eggs, almonds and whipping cream. A real answer to those informal summer meals.

Chicken Mousse

3 cups cooked, chopped chicken
1 cup toasted almonds
2 envelopes gelatin
1/2 cup water (cold)
2 cups chicken broth
4 egg yolks
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. Worcestershire Sauce
2 tbsps. salad mustard
2 cups Whipping Cream
4 hard cooked eggs (chopped)

Method: Soak gelatin in water. Combine chicken broth, salt and egg yolks. Cook in double boiler until smooth and slightly thick (about ten minutes). Pour this over the soaked gelatin and stir until the gelatin is dissolved. Add chicken, nuts, hard cooked eggs, Worcestershire sauce and set aside until it begins to jell. Whip cream; add salad mustard and fold all into chicken mixture. Pour into mold or loaf pan which has been oiled with salad oil. Chill well, and if possible, let stand over night. Unmold on a bed of salad greens. Garnish with deviled eggs, tomato wedges, olives or your favorite relish.

Open dog training classes at New Trier

New Trier Dog Training Club is starting a new class on Thursday, July 7, at 7:30. Regular class time is 8:00 to 9:00 o'clock.

This training enables those interested to show their dogs in licensed shows. There are three degrees recognized by the American Kennel Club that you and your dog can work toward: C. D., Companion Dog; C. D. X., Companion Dog Excellent; U. D., Utility Dog.

Classes are held in the cool basement of New Trier high school's gym located in Winnetka. Dogs can be any breed, but must be registered and at least six months old. Towser must be on a leash with a chain collar best. For added information dog owners can call Glenview 1943-W or Wheeling 99-J.

'Ten Little Indians' bring murder, mystery to Lake Zurich theater

Murder is in the cold wind that blows from the coast of Devon, England, across the channel to Indian Island. "Who-dunit" will be the phrase on everyone's lips next week when the New Lake Zurich Playhouse presents "Ten Little Indians."

"Ten Little Indians" will be directed by Miss Bella D. Itkin with Harvey Korman, Salie Saunders, Robt. M. Casper and Gerald E. McGonagill heading the cast.

This week the Playhouse presents "The Late Christopher Bean," July 6 through the 10th.

Good Buy- all around

FRIENDS gather, look over that long bonnet and wish they had as much fireball life as you have here.

They size up the broad windshield and narrow corner posts—and don't have to be told how these things step up "see-power."

They appraise the smart styling, the roomy interiors, the usability of luggage space—and agree you've made a buy.

But don't stop, please, with letting them look. Invite them in and introduce them to some of the special pleasures you'll know as a Buick owner.

Show them, for instance, how completely different Dynaflow Drive is, with every mile cushioned by flowing oil and none of the rigid harshness of direct-drive cars.

Let them sample the matchless Buick ride, with all four wheels cradled on soft, coil springs and low-pressure tires made still easier-riding by extra-wide rims.

†Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER models.

Point out how solid this Buick feels. That's what you get from husky frames, low-slung weight, and power delivered through a torque-tube instead of the rear springs.

For the truth is, this Buick's a bargain on much, much more than you can see.

It's a big buy on the solid goodness a demonstration quickly makes plain. On increasingly favorable delivery dates. On attractive price. On the kind of "deal" your Buick dealer makes.

That's why we keep saying "Better see your Buick dealer—and get that order in promptly!"

BUICK alone has all these features

Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE* • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area • SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access • "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Credit cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADRIFLEX COIL SPRINGING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • Cruiser-Line VENTIPOORTS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods • BODY BY FISHER *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER models.

Way Back When

Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money

Windmill power used to operate Arlington's first grist mill

For this week's "Way Back When" we are running pictures and stories of some of the old business houses in Arlington Heights. These include Arlington Heights Roller Mills, the former Greenberg Blacksmith shop and the Village Harness shop.

In 1865 James Shriner built a grist mill at the northwest corner of Wing street and State road, Arlington Heights. The mill was operated by windmill power and was purchased in 1870 by Konrad Kolling and Sons. Arlington Roller Mills property now stands on this corner.

Konrad Kolling was the great grandfather of Irving Kolling of 27 South State road, Arlington Heights. Konrad was killed in the mill when his clothing caught in the machinery.

FROM ABOUT 1900 to 1908 Kolling and sons in a one story building facing State road on the present site of the theater's parking lot made corn huskers and threshing machines. Irving Kolling's grandfather, John, and his two sons, Henry and Herman, ran this business.

In 1905 they began to manufacture shredders. This was discontinued about 5 years later because the corn didn't ripen and the fodder would not keep.

In 1910 Irving's father, Herman Kolling, began a repair shop on this site. This building was demolished in a fire, but was rebuilt. In 1921 he sold the building to J. B. Crofoot, which firm now manufactures stapleing devices in Mt. Prospect.

IN 1911 THE MILL was sold by August Lesenow to Mr. Lindner. William Lesser had the business before Lesenow. During this period the business changed hands frequently because the steam boilers didn't function properly. When the state inspector would not approve the boilers, the owners would sell. Lindner was the first one to install electricity.

Lindner, who died in 1944, ran the business 32 years until 1943 when he sold to his son-in-law, Alvin Popp.

Following the removal of the Crofoot Mfg. Co. to Mt. Prospect, the building was purchased by Mr. Lindner, who moved it to the rear of his mill property using it as a warehouse.

William Duenn Sr., has identified the cocky young man as Shorty Thompson (no relation to the present Arlington resident also called "Shorty").

Duenn remembers Thompson as a young man who cut quite a swath in Arlington sixty some years ago. Note the derby hat and cane that all well dressed young men wore in those days.

Arlington's early blacksmith shop

H. Baumann built his whip and collar shop on the east side of Dunton street, just south of Campbell, Arlington Heights. The building now houses the Scharringhausen tavern. In the picture can be seen Mrs. Baumann, daughter Mildred, Mr. Baumann and son Edwin, now practicing dentistry in Arlington. Establishment was known as the Village Harness Shop.

MR. BAUMANN had started business on the west side of the street in 1898, moving to the east side in 1905. Sharing the building with him for a time was the Berbecker curtain rod company.

DURING THE 1920's a real estate boom was on and people were improving their property and building anew, and in 1926

Edward Greenberg blacksmith shop and wagon shop formerly located at the northwest corner of Evergreen avenue and Northwest highway in Arlington Heights was built in the year 1872.

The Wolfe blacksmith shop, where Mr. Greenberg was employed after he arrived in this country, is now the building occupied by Rudy Stein on the east side of Evergreen street.

Just Around the Corner

Mary McArdle has been writing a column for Paddock Publications for seven years. While living on a Roselle farm, she started corresponding with a Chihiman; Then that mistake is a blessing in disguise. Such self discipline, such courageous facing of life's realities is what makes men strong. There is nothing hopeless about mistakes, unless we brood over them, become discouraged or disconsolate. But if we do, we are on the way to bitterness, despair, possible mental breakdown and sure failure.

Nervous breakdowns are never caused by overwork, unless one is ill health. Nature has provided each of us with a safety valve that automatically compels us to rest when we are exhausted—and it is my belief that no one should ever rest until he is completely exhausted. It is worry, brooding, self censure, self pity, and fear that breaks the camel's back, often causing unhappiness, ruined lives or health. Clean these skeletons out of your closet by means of self discipline—or self education if you wish to call it by its gentler name—and you are on the way to healthy, happy living.

TALES OF THE STREET

OF THE STREET

• HEAT

June has passed into history and it turned out to be one of the warmest spring months in many years.

With a temperature excess of 179 degrees for the month, the hot days of June about set a record for there were a couple of cool spells during the month when a top coat was comfortable which made the hot days seem hotter.

While the last two weeks of the month were showing daily temperature readings of about 10 degrees daily above normal, the excessive humidity made the heat seem worse.

But it has been great growing weather and farm crops have boomed along at a great rate.

The excess temperature of June brought the yearly excess temperature to date up to 685 degrees, which shows that we have had one of the warmest springs for many years.

• CROP OUTLOOK

The warm weather has hurried the growth of all farm and garden crops and the corn, which is supposed to be knee high by July 4th, was that and more than half a month before the 4th.

Grain crops have been turning fast during the hot weather and harvest days will soon be here.

Gardeners are having an abundance of eatables from their gardens.

Fred Blume says that he never had better potatoes than this year and that everything in the garden is doing fine but that he too has had trouble with the blackbirds that raided his peacock rows and helped themselves to the most choice peas. Fred planted some sweet corn on the land where his peas had been and is wondering what's going to do.

Well, with a little luck in the matter of a shower now and then, he should get a nice crop of late sweet corn.

• SPRAYING

The old pest of the farmers, the Canadian thistle, is losing its terror for the farmer who used to face an endless job of keeping the thistles cut out of his fields.

Now the system is to spray fields of crops to get rid of thistles and other bothersome weeds and some great results are being obtained from spraying.

More farmers each year are finding out that the spraying does get the thistles and weeds without damage to crops and more and more of them are spraying their fields, which has greatly reduced the weed menace and the loss of a lot of grain due to thistles and weeds.

Deer Grove forest preserve was sprayed some time ago and that forest preserve was always the hunting ground for weeds of all kinds.

Thistle commissioners say that they are having their greatest trouble in trying to get state highways cleaned up.

Spraying is proving such an effective method of getting rid of weed pests that a plan is on foot around Palatine to have the whole community sprayed for mosquitoes.

Now if those pesky mosquitoes could only be wiped out, what a

• SNAPPY

There was a mighty bright spot out at the park the other evening and it made a big hit with fans and that was the team of Danny's Sport Shop, all dolly up in their snappy green and white uniforms.

It was surely a refreshing sight to see a team on the field all wearing the same uniform and it made it look like an organized team, not a lot of picked up ringer wearing three or four different uniforms.

Being all dolled up in those nifty suits seemed to make Danny's boys a lot more peppy. They played their best game of the season and really looked like a ball club.

We understand more teams have uniforms on order. When they all get dressed, it will begin to look like a league.

• MIKE

Now while we are on the subject of baseball, we want to pay tribute to one of the outstanding celebrities of Recreation park in Arlington Heights.

He isn't a ball player nor a manager nor even an announcer, but the part he has played in Red Wing ball games is a mighty bill next spring.

• THE OLD RUT

People get awfully excited about election time and tax time about budgets and such things and then forget all about them.

No one showed up recently at an advertised budget hearing of the road and bridges fund held by the road commissioner.

How many will take enough interest in school affairs to attend the budget hearing of the consolidated school board on Wednesday evening, July 13?

These school budgets are where they talk in terms of hundreds of thousands of dollars and not a few thousand like the township and road and bridge budgets but when tax time is past and elections are over, interest seems to die out. Or is it just the depressing effects of the hot weather and the mosquitoes? Anyhow, there's a school budget nearing the 13th and they'll be big figures and you'll have a chance to see where your school tax dollar goes now and not have to wait until you get your tax bill next spring.

Preview of life

Because St. Luke's hospital does not allow babies to be taken home until they weigh five pounds, "Kathy" Katherine Swift (center) spent three long months in the incubator, coming home October 2, the exact day she was to have been born.

Kathy, who will be 2 years old July 21 was a premature baby and weighed only two pounds and measured 12 inches in length at birth.

Most premature babies who spend any amount of time at the hospital are nick-named. Nurses at St. Luke's affectionately called Kathy "Calamity Jane."

Brown haired and hazel eyed Kathy is just beginning to walk, much to the amusement of an older sister, Shirley Ann, 8, who is in 4th grade at North school.

Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Swift, 817 N. Yale, Arlington Heights.

Harriet Moylan, 4, (right) is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Moylan, 911 N. Yale, Arlington Heights. She has red hair and blue eyes.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: Can you tell me what interest rates lenders are permitted to charge on GI Bill Business loans?

Answer: It is maximum. However, the interest rate may be slightly higher for certain types of insurance business loans.

Question: What is the USAFI and what kind of courses are open to servicemen through USAFI?

Answer: USAFI is the abbreviation name of the United States Armed Forces Institute, Madison, Wisconsin. Available through USAFI are high school, vocational and college level courses, more than 300 of them,—both correspondence and self-teaching—and, in addition there are more than 6000 correspondence courses covering 500 subjects offered by universities and colleges through USAFI.

Question: Does a veteran have the privilege of pledging his National Service Life Insurance as a last will and testament?

Answer: No. A change of beneficiary for your insurance must be made by written notice to the Veterans Administration over your signature and it is not binding on the VA unless it is received and indorsed on your insurance contract by that agency.

Question: What does a 4-A draft classification signify?

Answer: A 4-A draft classification signifies that a registrant has completed his service, or that he is a sole surviving son.

Lesson in English

by W. L. GORDON
Words Often Misused

Do not use partake as a synonym for eat or drink. Partake means to share with others. One may partake of a meal with other persons, but does not partake of a meal by one's self.

Do not say, "Let us proceed on." On is redundant, as onward. However, "Let us proceed on our journey" is correct.

Do not say, "The ship's speed was ten knots an hour." An hour is tautological. In nautical usage, a vessel that is going at ten knots is traveling at the rate of ten nautical miles an hour.

Do not say, "The meeting convened at eight o'clock." Say, "The people convened (assembled) at eight o'clock," or, "The meeting took place at eight o'clock."

Do not say, "She has been to school." Say, "She has been at school." "She went to school" is correct.

Do not say, "I can't locate the papers." Say, "I can't find the papers." Locate is not in good use as a general substitute for find.

Words Often Mispronounced
Mosaic. Pronounce mo-za-ik, o as in obey, a as in day, accent on second syllable.

Bequeath. Pronounce the th as in smooth, not as in both.

Luxury. Pronounce luk-shoo-ri, not lug-shoo-ri.

Bestial. Pronounce best-yal, e as in best, not as in beast.

Ultimatum. Pronounce ult-i-matum, both u's as in up, a as in may, accent third syllable.

Evidently. Accent first syllable and not the third.

Words Often Misspelled

Transparent; par, not pair. Glue, glued, gluey; observe the e. Gluing; no e. Beach (shore). Beech (tree). Aberration; one b, two r's. Earring; two r's, and written as one word. Fellow (rim of a wheel); distinguish from fellow.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

ABSOLVE; to set free, or release, as from some obligation, or from the consequences of guilt. "John was absolved from all blame in the transaction."

IMPENETRABLE; incapable of being entered, or passed through. "Highest words, impenetrable to star or sunlight." — Milton.

VOLATILE; light-hearted; of trucks.

sire; hence, fickle. "Love without esteem is volatile." — Johnson.

EFFULGENT; diffusing a flood of light; luminous. (Pronounce the u as in up.) "Effulgent rays of light."

GULLIBILITY; readiness to believe on slight evidence. "Quackery has no friend like gullibility." — Proverb.

Bits o' business

Maybe it's a cloud no bigger than a man's hand, but there are signs that industry is stepping up its hiring. Even from Bridgeport, Conn., which was hard hit employment-wise, comes word that this fall will see an upturn in industrial activity and jobs.

Despite a probable surplus in tin, the government is going to continue to give foreign producers a high price for the metal, says Washington . . . Truman is now studying the mid-year report of his economists. Last time they told him inflation was the problem, now it's deflation . . . Employment in the aircraft manufacturing industry is rising as military plans move to the plant level . . . Lower prices have spurred consumption of canned fruits . . . Railroads may lower their freight charges on Florida citrus fruits to meet competition of trucks.

Spittoon bill fails in state legislature

Novel of social success reflects modern life

Can the social success which a man builds for himself out of his ability and ambition bring him contentment?

This is the question John P. Marquand asks in his latest book, Point of No Return. The man whose qualifications have brought him to the eve of success is Charles Gray, a rising young banker.

The story covers the several days before a new vice-president at the bank is named. The choice lies between Charles and the man who took his place while Charles was overseas.

As he awaits the decision, he returns on business to Clyde, the small Massachusetts town where he grew up. He looks back over his life with his family, his boyhood romance with a girl from a higher social class, his early years at the bank. These years were a background for the business success he has acquired, the beautiful home in exclusive Sycamore Park, and his family. He has now reached a point of no return, for he has a responsibility to them.

Marquand's novel is full of insight. Occasionally the reader finds himself dissected across a page. He is left with an uneasy feeling as he closes the book, for Marquand has aptly described the problem without giving any clues to its answer.

Perhaps, however, the lack of a pat solution gives a more telling delineation to this crisis in the life of a modern man.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. How should the wedding invitations be worded if the bride is a very young widow?

A. The invitations should be issued in the names of the bride's parents, and should be worded exactly as the invitations to her first wedding, with the exception that instead of the name "Mary Elizabeth," it should read "Mary Johnson Smith."

Q. Should the dessert spoon or fork be placed on the table at the beginning of the meal?

A. No; they should be brought in on the dessert plate.

Q. Should a woman rise when seated at a table in a restaurant, and another woman comes by and stops to shake hands?

A. This is not necessary, unless she is very young and the other woman is elderly.

Q. When passing a cream pitcher at the table, or any other such article that has a handle, should the handle be turned toward the one who is to receive it?

A. Yes, always.

Q. Is it necessary that a man make calls of condolence, inquiry, and congratulation among his group of friends?

A. Yes; it is his duty, and he is expected to do so.

Q. Is it customary for a bride to buy a gift of some kind for her bridegroom on their wedding day?

A. It would be better for the woman to introduce herself first.

This position, which he has worked hard all his life to reach, he no longer finds attractive. His goal is no longer exciting. A need to believe in something more important than a bank vice-president haunts him.

His predicament reminds me of Walter Lippmann's discussion of modern man in his thought-provoking Preface to Morals. He describes the unbeliever's plight: "...he finds that the civilization of which he is a part leaves a dusty taste in the mouth. He may be very busy with many things, but he discovers one day that he is no longer sure they are worth doing."

Marquand's novel is full of insight. Occasionally the reader finds himself dissected across a page. He is left with an uneasy feeling as he closes the book, for Marquand has aptly described the problem without giving any clues to its answer.

Farmer orders rain; to get all he needs July 14

A grant of $5,000 for the study of swine diseases has been made by the Illinois Farm Bureau Service Association to the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine, according to an announcement made today by Russell V. McKee, serum association president. Further grants are expected to be made over a period of the next few years.

The demonstration of "ready-made rain" will be held on the Pell-Bari farm five miles northwest of Woodstock on Thursday, July 14. Farm Adviser Bill Tammeus announced. It is being sponsored by the McHenry County Farm Bureau in cooperation with the University of Illinois.

A sprinkler irrigation system, with light aluminum pipe and rotating sprinklers, can give a 3½-inch rain in 11 hours—and then is easily moved with a tractor to another portion of the field. This system is now being set up at the Pell-Bari farm on a field of corn.

Sprinkler irrigation is fast spreading all over the country. It has given sensational results: An increase of three to five tons of alfalfa per acre; butterfat yields of up to $400 an acre from sprinkler irrigated Ladino pasture; corn yields that are doubled.

Nitrogen fertilizer is put right through the sprinkler system. University of Illinois experts say that DDT might be put through the sprinkler system to kill corn borers, and 2,4-D might be put through the sprinkler system to weed oats and wheat.

Work on the research project will begin at the University next September.

DDT has everyone scared—but we think it's neither extreme

"A couple of years back when DDT first was announced as being used in the Army to control insects, many people couldn't wait until they could get some of it," states Farm Adviser Hughes. "This was before it had been tried out thoroughly experimentally and its use in the army was of emergency nature. Now that a few reports have gotten out about its possible toxicity, many people are becoming very cautious about using DDT."

"Our opinion is that its value lies somewhere in between these two extremes. Just how poisonous it is to human beings has never been clearly determined. Actually there are no outstanding cases of its mis-use. We think its possible greatest mis-use may be in depopulating some of the more valuable insects where pollution of flowers is essential."

"DDT can be used as a mist spray, and at a rather low concentration, it will eliminate mosquitoes from a large area to a minimum number. Used largely in and around the home and in and around the farm, it will eliminate most of the flies along with sanitation."

"THE QUESTION is often asked: How much DDT does it take to make the soil sterile?" So far as is known 50 lbs. of pure DDT will render a soil unproductive. Just how long it would take for this to accumulate and whether DDT stays permanently in that form is not known. Our opinion is that ions shows a great deal of promise and that he would like as many growers of vegetables as possible to see it. After visiting these plots the group will move across the street to the Koehler Brothers farm. This is a farm that has been kept in a very high state of cultivation.

THIS YEAR the brothers have made special use of nitrogen as a side dressing after the crop was up. This is one of the first times that a nitrate fertilizer has been used extensively on a large acreage as a regular practice and the results are pronounced. From this location the tour will next stop at the John Benck farm west of Cicero on 115th street. Mr. Benck has a modern warehouse and is doing extensive irrigation and as the season has been too dry in south Cook county, he will have an opportunity to see the value of irrigation on an average year. If the weather happens to be bad lunches will be eaten in Mr. Benck's warehouse, otherwise the tour will move on to the South Holland area. Those staying all day should bring basket lunches.

It is impossible to give the exact location of the stops in the afternoon and any one wishing to join the tour in the afternoon is invited to join it at Mr. Benck's place at noon or 12:30. In the afternoon the hybrid

Farm accidents in state to cost 40 million

Farm accidents in 1949 will cost Illinois farmers approximately $40,000,000, according to figures compiled by John A. Lake, director of the Illinois Agricultural Association department of safety.

This does not account for the productive work lost on farms as a result of accidents. Lake said in pointing out the importance of the observance of National Farm Safety Week, July 24-30.

"A quarter of a million working days will be lost by Illinois farmers because of these accidents," Lake estimated, "and 60,000 farm people will suffer a disabling injury. Farm families must be made to realize what a tremendous loss they are suffering each year because of carelessness."

Lake estimates that 9,000 of the 60,000 accidents will occur in July because it is a busy month on farms and a great many accidents occur because of hurrying.

"A sound year-around program of safety on Illinois farms is necessary for the welfare of farm families," he said. "It is hoped that observance of National Farm Safety Week will be a step in this direction." Lake is co-chairman of the Illinois state farm safety committee for the observance of National Farm Safety Week.

...You be the Judge

We are willing to go to this trouble and expense simply because a real demonstration is the only way any farmer can fully appreciate what the Ford Tractor has to offer. Arrange for the demonstration, see the demonstration and then you be the judge!

You owe it to yourself to see a Ford Tractor perform. We will arrange that performance for you; you name the spot and we will put the Ford Tractor through its paces. What's more we will let you operate it yourself. There will be no charge and no obligation for this demonstration.

LAW on the FARM

Farm culverts and bridges.

Generally it is the duty of highway authorities to see that farmers or other landowners along the highway have proper access to the road. One Illinois statute provides that "In grading public roads, if a ditch is made at the entrance of gates or other openings of adjoining premises, the road authorities shall construct good and sufficient culverts, or other convenient crossings." This section was the basis for a lawsuit in an Illinois appellate court, and the court held that a township is liable to an owner when it makes a ditch along his property and fails to make the crossing required in this statute.

Openings or entrances into fields made after the highway is constructed would probably be subject to the rule in this statute if they are necessary. If a farmer chooses to make an opening into a field and lay his own culvert, it would have to meet the approval of the highway authorities as to capacity, strength, depth or any other factors which might affect the drainage or use of the highway.

Another law provides that any owner who has land on both sides of a public highway is entitled to make a crossing under the highway for a passage of his animals. He must erect at his own expense a bridge which will meet the approval of the highway authorities. The bridge must be at least 16 feet wide and have good railings. Any required grading or embanking must be done by the farmer. Also, the bridge must be kept in good repair by the landowner. This law further provides that when such an undercrossing is made in a waterway or natural channel where there is a highway bridge, the farm owner is required to pay only costs in excess of those which the road authorities would have to meet anyway.

The laws referred to are in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 121, Section 113 and 149.

SUE FOR DAMAGES

Marie and Ernest Di Silvestro and Florence Cowles have sued M. R. Bengtson in the Superior court for damages for injuries in an automobile accident Oct. 31 last on Rt. 12 between Arlington Heights and Des Plaines. Both cars were being driven in the same direction. It is charged the defendant's car passed in front and suddenly stopped causing a collision. Marie asks $5,000 damages, Florence $15,000 and Ernest $500.

Setting Hen Given Walking Papers As Power Invades Poultry Business

By IRA MILLER

Farm Electrification Bureau

The setting hen is losing her barn-yard grip. A few more years and she'll be little more than a legend. Her job, like scores of others in the poultry business, has gone mechanical.

Shown above is a view of the automatic poultry feeder developed at Pennsylvania State College.

In this movement toward the industrial way of doing things on the farm, electricity has played a major part. It has brought the "push button" age of agriculture to a high degree of accomplishment. It can do just about everything but produce the egg. With that necessary bit of business out of the way, here's how electricity takes over.

Hatches eggs in automatic electric incubators which provide uniform heat and moisture control.

Electric brooding is the next step.

And from this point on, any number of electrical helpers move into the poultry picture.

maximum production in so-called "off seasons."

And then, eggs can be cleaned, graded and candled electrically. Electricity operates poultry house ventilating systems, poultry scalders and wakers. It powers "rubber-fingered" poultry pickers which pick as high as 200 birds an hour. To farmers who complain of cannibalism in their flocks or about the loss of mash bill, the egg hatching incubators provide uniform heat and moisture control.

Electric brooding is the next step.

It is used to clip off a small section of the chicken's upper beak or mandible—the cause of such worries.

Just Around the Corner

fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasion on the right of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the state remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasions from without and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the populations of these states; for that purpose obstructing the laws for the naturalization of foreigners, refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made the judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislature.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitutions, and unacknowledged by our laws, giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us;

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these states;

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world;

For imposing taxes on us without our consent;

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury;

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses;

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamental, the forms of our governments;

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens taken captive upon the high seas to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren or to fall themselves by their hands. He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant is unfit to be ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them, by ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence, denounce our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace, friends.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in general congress assembled, appealing to the supreme Judge of the work for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare.

That these united colonies are, and by right ought to be, free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And, for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

With love,
Mary.

The Chinese are said to have invented eyeglasses. According to legend, they were used as early as 500 B. C. The World Book Encyclopedia states that Marco Polo reported that he saw Chinese wearing glasses in China about 1275 A. D.

Cook County Personal Property Assessment For 1949

Elk Grove Township

OFFICIAL NOTICE

This publication is the official notice to personal owners of the 1949 personal property assessments made in the town and district indicated.

RETURNS AND ESTIMATES

THE LAW PROVIDES THAT WHERE A PROPERTY OWNER FAILS TO RETURN A SCHEDULED LIST OF HIS PROPERTY, THE ASSESSOR OF CO. COUNTY MUST ESTIMATE AS VALUE ACCORDING TO HIS BEST JUDGMENT AND INFORMATION, AND ADD THERETO A PENALTY OF 50 PER CENT. ASSESSMENTS RAISED ON ESTIMATES AND RETURNS HAVE EQUAL STANDING IN LAW.

The amounts herein listed are the assessed values of personal property as of April 1, 1949, as determined by the Assessor of Cook County.

The amount listed as the assessed value is not the tax. The tax may be determined by multiplying the assessed valuation after it has been equalized by the Department of Finance of the State of Illinois by the tax rate in the Town or District in which the property is assessed. The Assessor has nothing to do with the equalization of values or the establishing of tax rates.

BASIS OF COMPLAINT ON ASSESSMENTS

Where a property owner has a specific claim of over or under valuation, complaint may be filed with the Board of Appeals in the County Building, immediately after this notice.

INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS

Each property owner who has any questions in regard to the assessment of his property may call the Assessor of Cook County, Room 312, County Building, Information will be furnished without cost.
